

Which of the people will remember this moment the longest?

1

How much are the people enjoying these activities?

2

Here are two photographs. They show different leisure activities. Compare and contrast these two photographs and say which activity you would prefer.

Here are two photographs. They show different leisure activities. Compare and contrast these two photographs and say which activity you would prefer.

Here are two photographs. They show different types of holidays. Compare these two photographs and say kind of holiday you would prefer.

Here are two photographs. They show different kinds of restaurants. Compare these two photographs and say where you would prefer to eat.

Here are two photographs. They show two teachers. Compare the two pictures and say in what ways the second teacher is different to the first teacher.

Here are two photographs. They show two different kinds of jobs. Compare the two pictures and say if you would like to work outdoors or indoors.

Compare and contrast the photographs saying why you think the people have chosen to travel by taxi.

Compare and contrast the photos and say how the people are feeling about the animals.

Compare and contrast the photographs saying what skills are important in each one.

Compare and contrast the photos saying what possible problems and benefits the people collecting these things may have.

Compare the pictures, and say what the people might find hard about having to work in these situations.

