Speaking Part 3

I would like you to talk about something for three minutes.

You would like to give an elderly friend a photograph frame as a present. Here are some of the photographs she has collected during her life.

First talk to each other about why these photographs might be important to her. Then decide which one she will choose to put in the frame.

You have only about three minutes for this, so, once again, don't worry if I stop you. Please speak so that we can hear you. All right?
